THE MARKET WATCH

Lansing City Market A Historic Place

The historic Lansing City Market was established in 1909 at the corner of Cedar Street and Shiawassee Street. For the past 96 years, quality local farmers and craftspeople have been bringing their goods to sell to the public in a warm, family-friendly environment.

The Lansing City Market is mid-Michigan's oldest public market in continuous operation. To this day, the market and its vendors provide the best in quality at reasonable prices in a unique and inviting atmosphere. Join us today to experience the personal touch you can only find here at home. For the freshest, most unique products, visit us today at the Lansing City Market!

Open All Year

Holiday shopping for something unique? Try the Lansing City Market. It's open all year on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 8:00 am - 6:00 pm.

Throughout the months of January, February and March all the vendors will be relocated to the west side of the market. Be sure to come in and check them out, they will still be carrying the same products!

Van Houten's Girls Return To Their Roots

The Lansing City Market welcomes back Van Houten's to its original location. Although they will be operating under a new name, Van Houten's Girls, they will still offer their traditional merchandise mix. Van Houten's is a small family business that originated in the Lansing City Market and has been operating out of their Cedar Street location since 1990. They have been in business for many years and have a loyal following. Their new shop in the market will offer many of their old products, but Laura Cobb, the owner, is also adding a few other products including silk flowers, wreaths and collectibles. For more information about Van Houten's Girls, please visit them in the northeast end of the Lansing City Market.

Market Recipe

Mapled Ham

Ingredients:

- 1 (4 pound) boneless ham
- 1 (8 ounce) can pineapple slices, canned in syrup
- 10 whole cloves
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup maple syrup
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons honey
- 2 tablespoons butter

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees Fahrenheit (175° Celsius).
2. Prick the ham with a fork. Place the pineapple slices on the ham, securing with toothpicks. Press the cloves into the ham. Place the ham in a baking dish with the water.
3. In a saucepan over low heat, melt the butter, and mix in the maple syrup, brown sugar and honey until heated through. Pour ½ the mixture over the ham.
4. Bake the ham 1 hour and 30 minutes in the preheated oven. Baste frequently with the remaining butter and syrup mixture.
5. Remove the ham from heat, and drain pan drippings into a saucepan over medium heat. Cook and stir until thickened, and serve with the ham.
